WELCOME TO THE CLEMENT ATTLEE

Unusually for a central London pub we are 100% independent being owned by ourselves, two old school friends, without any links to a major pub company or brewery. This independence means our sole focus is on your enjoyment and satisfaction. Every product we showcase is chosen for its exceptional quality alone.

We established The Craft Beer Co., our small collection of pubs, in 2011 and our passion for the great British pub and real hospitality is stronger today than ever. The Clement Attlee, of which we are incredibly proud, is a tribute to a truly great figure in British -and Limehouse- history. Blood, sweat and tears have gone into making this pub for you, we hope you enjoy it.

Thank you for your support, we are very grateful and never take it for granted.

THE CLEMENT ATTLEE

Clement Attlee was a colossus of 20th century Britain and the most prominent figure to ever emerge from Limehouse. Often ranked among Britain's greatest Prime Ministers (1945–1951), he is perhaps best known for his government founding the NHS and post-war welfare reforms.

He also helped cement the UK-US "Special Relationship" and establish NATO. Though not born locally, he volunteered at Haileybury House in Stepney in 1906 and managed it from 1907–1909. He became Stepney's mayor in 1919 and served as Member of Parliament for Limehouse from 1922 to 1950. Attlee was shaped by Limehouse and Stepney— and we are proud to bear his name.
